

245th Anniversary of the Battle of Brandywine

September 24 - 25 2022

HighLights

- Name of Event: 245th Anniversary of the Battle of Brandywine at Sandy Hollow Heritage Park
- Start & End Dates: 23 – 25 September 2022 (arrival on the 23rd, activities on the 24th & 25th)
- Location: Sandy Hollow Heritage Park
1313 Birmingham Rd,
West Chester, PA 19382
- Sponsoring Unit(s): First Continental Regiment & 43rd Regiment of Foot
- Other Sponsors: Birmingham Township, Pennsylvania
Thornbury Township, Pennsylvania
- Purpose/Objective of Event: To commemorate and reenact the 245th Anniversary of the Battle of Brandywine, the largest single day engagement of the American Revolution. In coordination with local municipalities activities to commemorate and historical education of the sacrifices of the participants on both sides of the conflict.

Venue and Access

- Sandy Hollow Heritage Park is a local municipal Park controlled by Birmingham Township, Pennsylvania
- It consists of 42 acres of preserved open space, much as it was in 1777, allows public access for passive recreation and historical education.
- It is part of the Brandywine Battlefield National Historic Landmark
- The park will be used exclusively for commemorative activities being held by the Townships
- Located right off of US Route 202, easily reached from either I95, I276, or US Route 1
- Approximately 35 miles west of Philadelphia

Infrastructure

- Birmingham Township will tentatively provide
 - The 240th Anniversary in 2017 the township provided all logistics (Fire, Police, Park Permits, crowd control, EMT services, liability insurance, Funding)
 - Sanitary Services: Porta Potties
 - Water, Wood, and Straw: to be provided
- Parking, Unloading/Loading: Adequate, ability to drive into camp before and after event
- Shelter: NONE
- Amenities
 - Close proximity to Philadelphia: between the towns of West Chester and Chadds Ford
 - US 1 major travel corridor with a number of hotels and shopping stores.

Proven Success: 2014 & 2017

Brandywine 2017 © mollypicturestudio.com